SPRING HATS AND BONNETS IN PROFUSION. A bewildering array of tasteful and stylish hats met e gaze of the throng who attended the opening of spring Ulinery at the house of J. Rothschild, Nos. 56 and 58 milinery at the house of J. Rothschild, Nos. 56 and 58 West Fourteenth-st. The recent importations of the house are the most expensive in quality, and the finest quality of goods which they have ever shown in their issenty years' experience in business. The array of low capote bonnets of metal and lace, with garnitures of rose bands or other flowers for theatre wear are especially noteworthy. Charming bonnets in black lace with flower crowns, and brims edged with flowers, and high hats with trimmings of plumes and lace, are shown for church wear. The new cound hats of Milan braid are displayed in all the fashionable dress colors of the season, decreated with the closely knotted "windmill" bows and full garnitures of ribbon and of long ribbon streamers. An extonsive department of the store is devoted to trimmed hats for children. Untrimmed hats and bonnets, and trimmings of all kinds occupy the entire portion of one of the large steres of the firm.

SAYS HE GOT SMALLPOX ON THH CIRCASSIA. Three new cases of smallpox were found in Brooklyn yesterday. The patients were Carl Olsen, of No. 72 North Eighth-st.; Michael Gabrilson, a sailor, of No. 109 William-st., and S. A. Tonsen. Tonsen stated that he contracted the disease on the steamer Circassia, which arrived in New-York last week. Dr. Baker, the Health Officer, has sent a report of the case of Tonsen to Quarantine Officer Smith.

NOT SO BADLY BITTEN AS REPORTED. Charles Craig, of the Central Park Hotel, who was attacked by a mad cat on Friday night, was not injured to tacked by a mad cat on Friday night, was not injured to the extent at first reported. He was not bitten at all, but the cat sunk its claws deep into his left arm, making a painful wound which he has had cauterized. The cat did not belong to the hotel, but had strayed in and it is did not belong to the hotel, but had strayed in and it is thought that fright at its strange surroundings and the attack of the hotel employes caused it to fly at Mr. Craig in the way it did.

RABBI BROWNE WILL HAVE A NEW TEMPLE. Rabbi Browne is to have a new chruch. Ever since he wered his connection with the congregation of the Gates Rabbi Browne is to have a new chruch. Ever since he severed his connection with the congregation of the Gates of Hope, on Eighty-sixth-sit, the Rabbi's friends in the congregation have been working to procure a suitable church, in which Rabbi Browne could preach the doctrines which gave offence to his former congregation. During service in the Temple Mount Sinzi, No. 160 East One-hundred-and-twelfth-st., yesterday, Louis Michaelis, the vice-president of the church, announced that the committee after one week's work had succeeded in raising the money necessary for the building of a new temple. It will be ready next fall. IF YOU can possibly spare the money, buy a goods sold at cost before storing away.
